

CHO!

By: Brian Yu

Yes.

Hey, you're Yasuda, right?

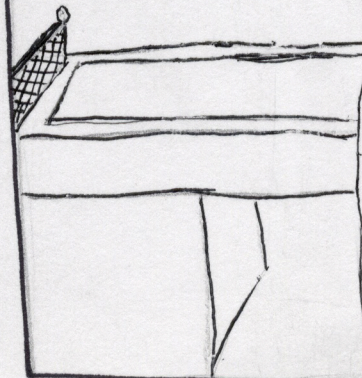

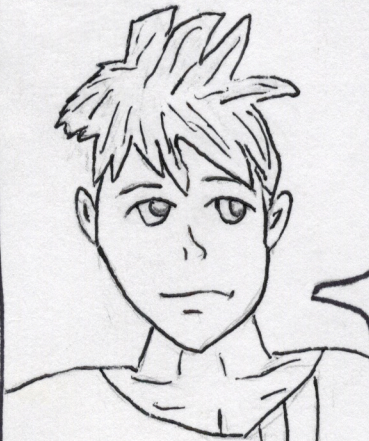

A defensive player like you would be great practice for me!

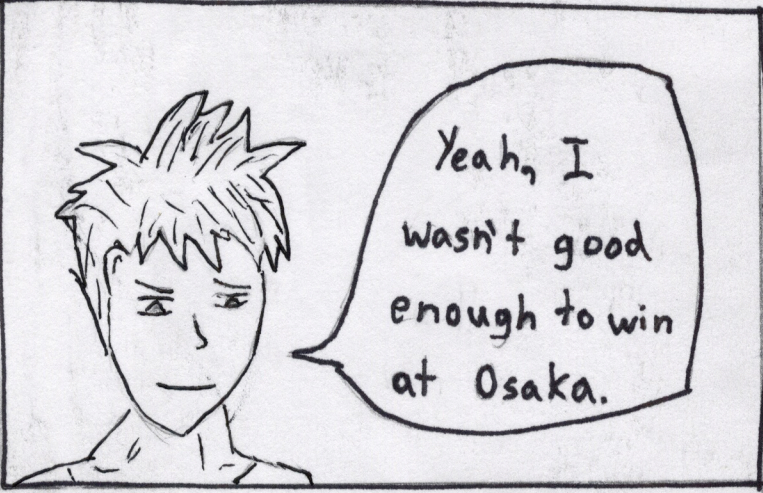

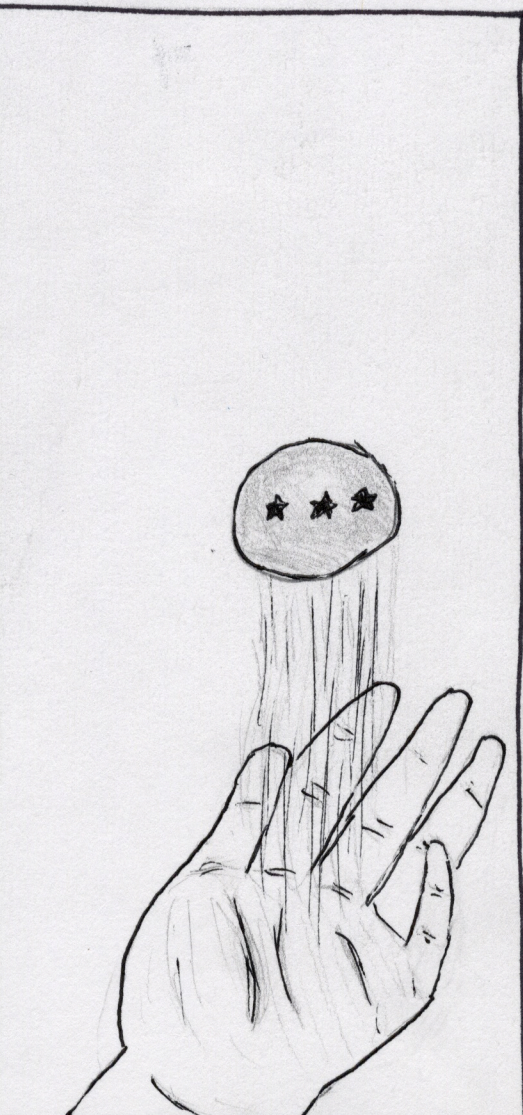

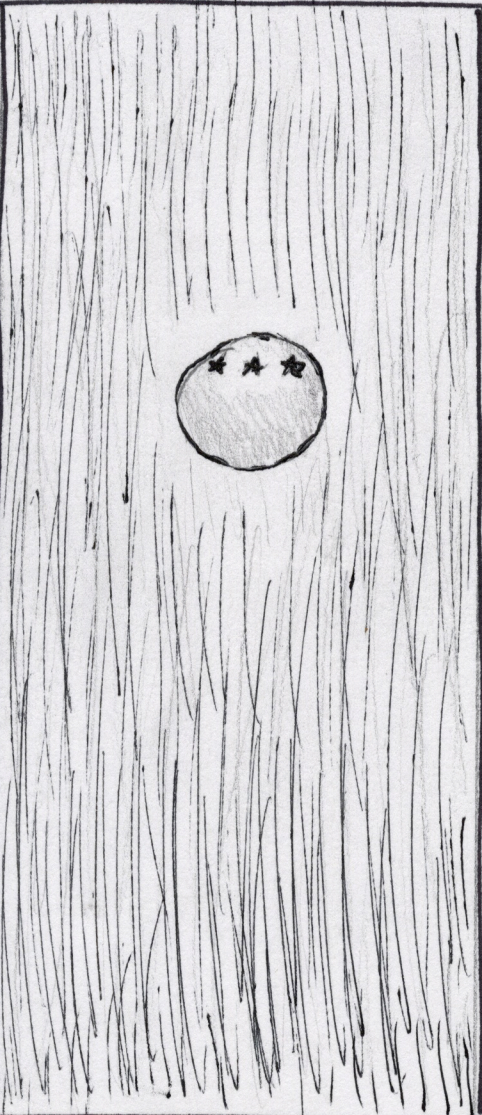

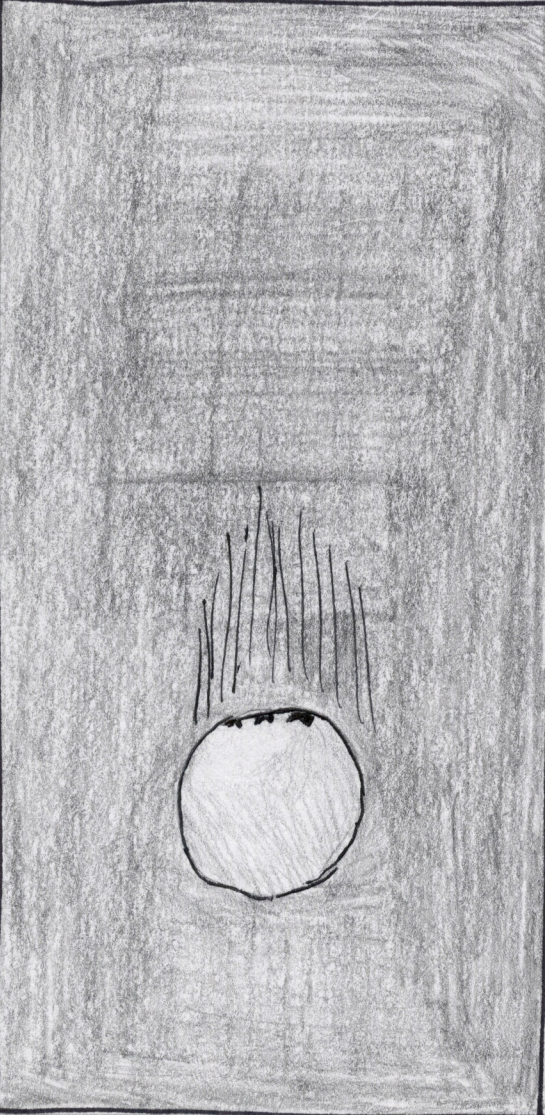

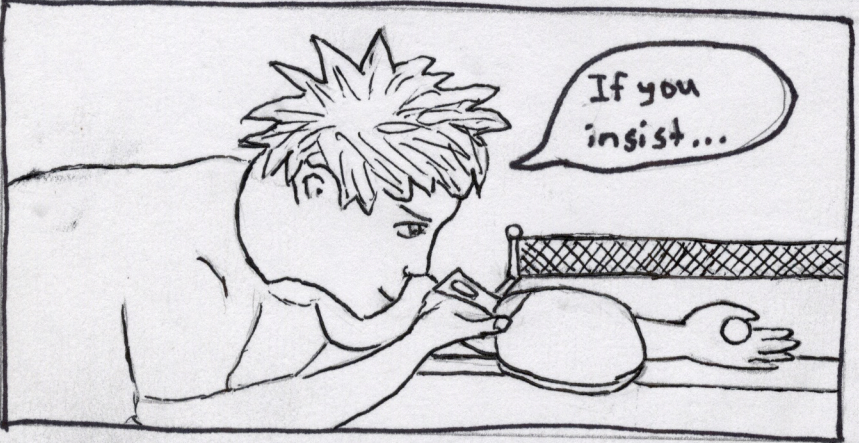

I challenge you to a game of table tennis!

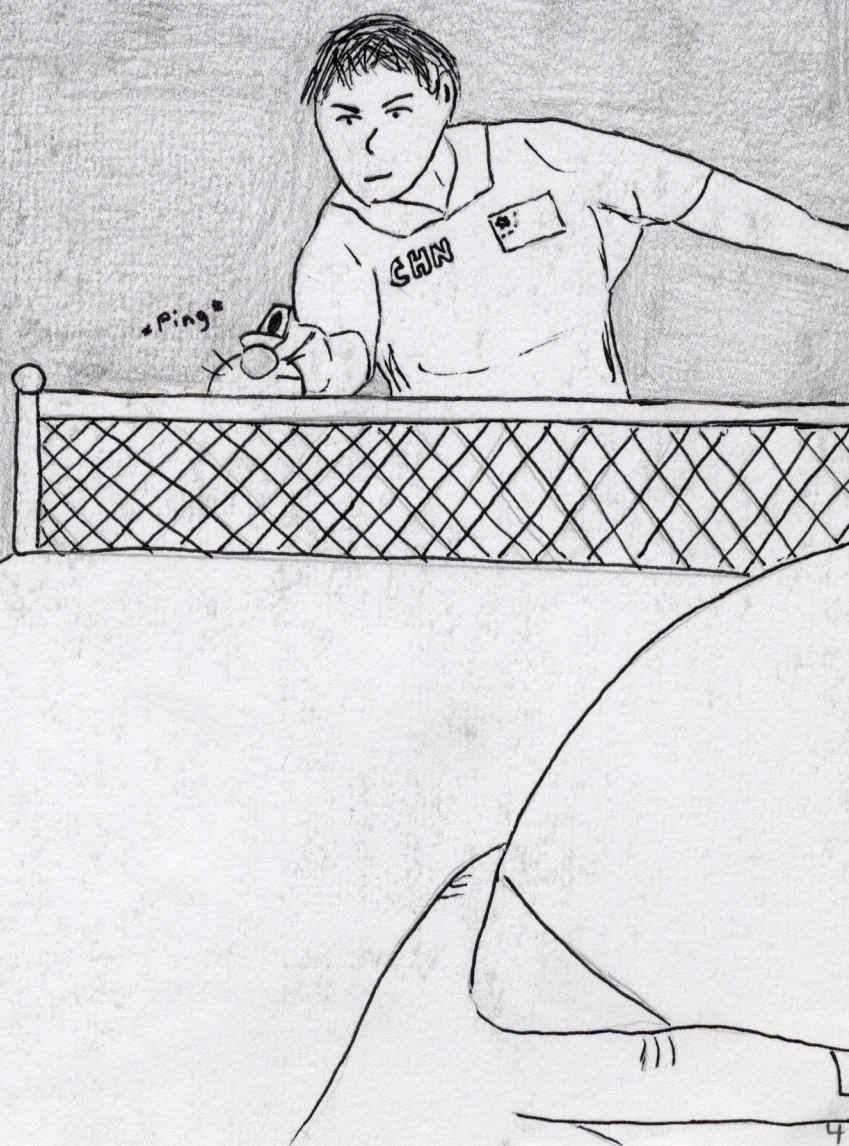

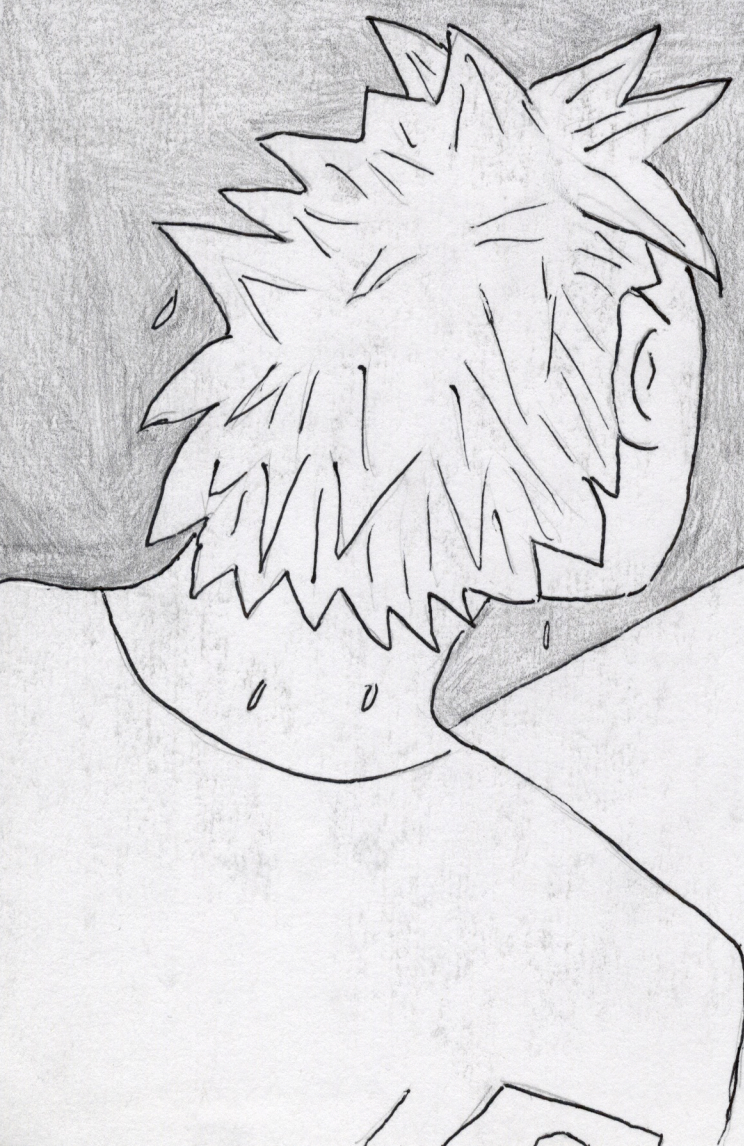

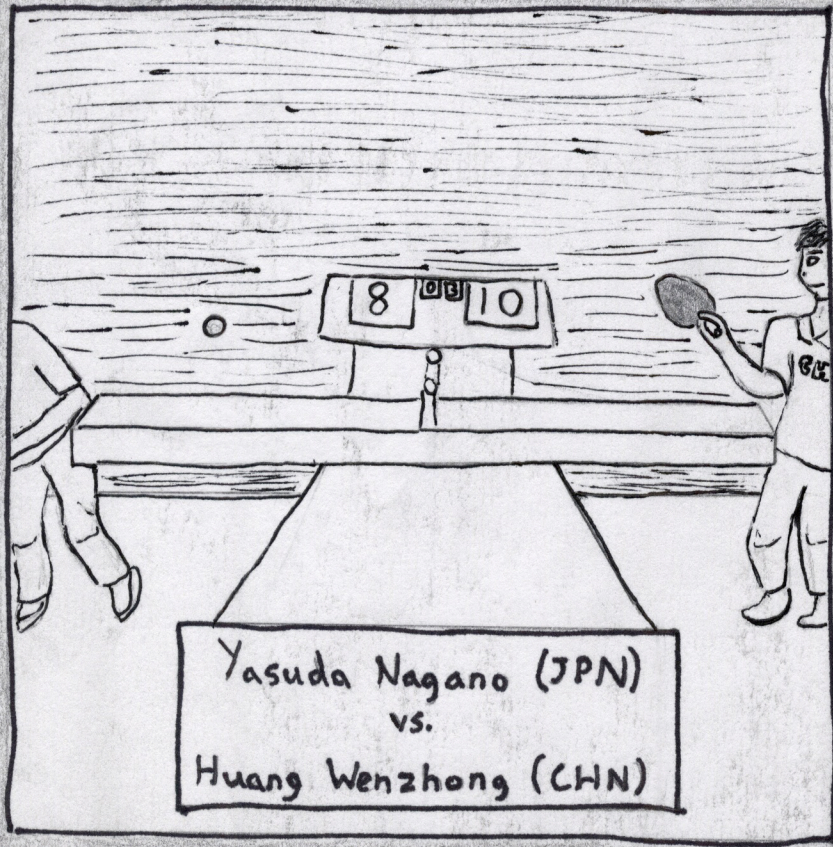

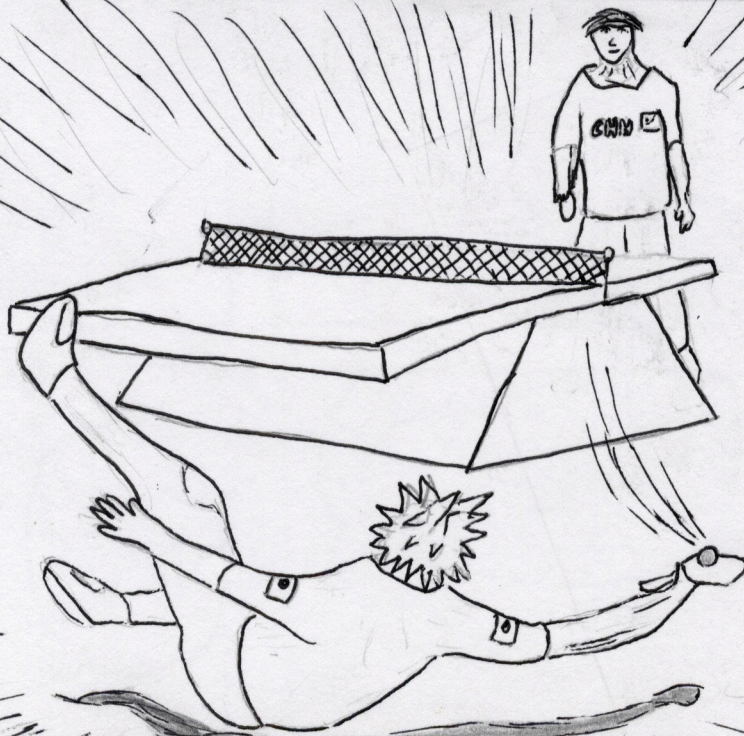

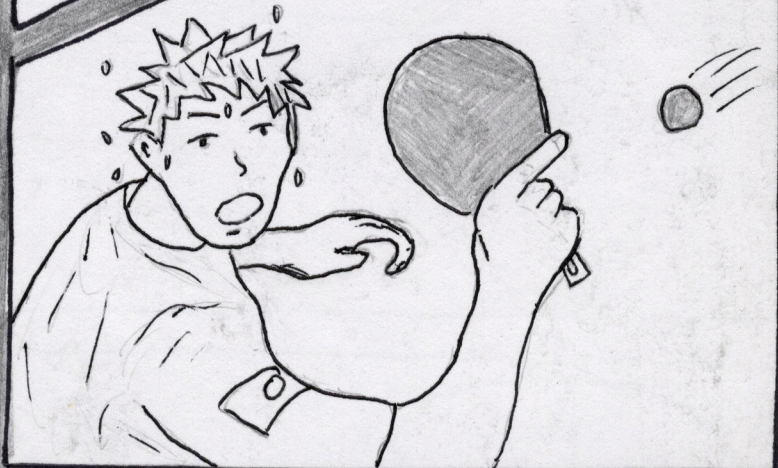

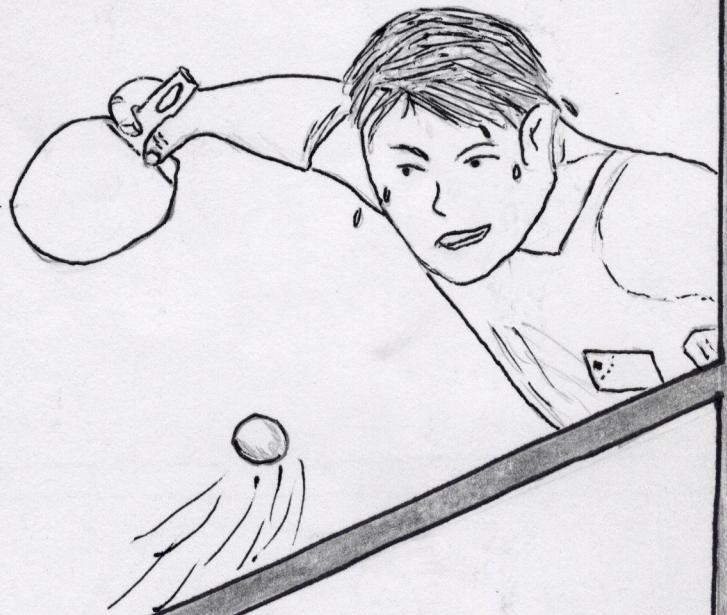

I WAS one, but I quit playing years ago.

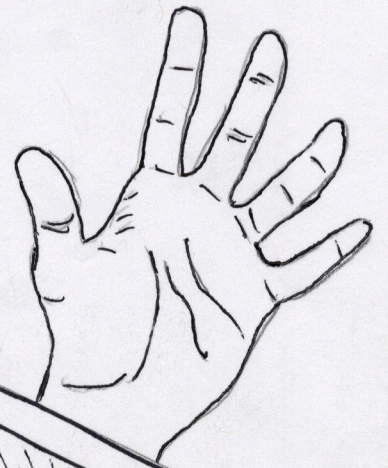

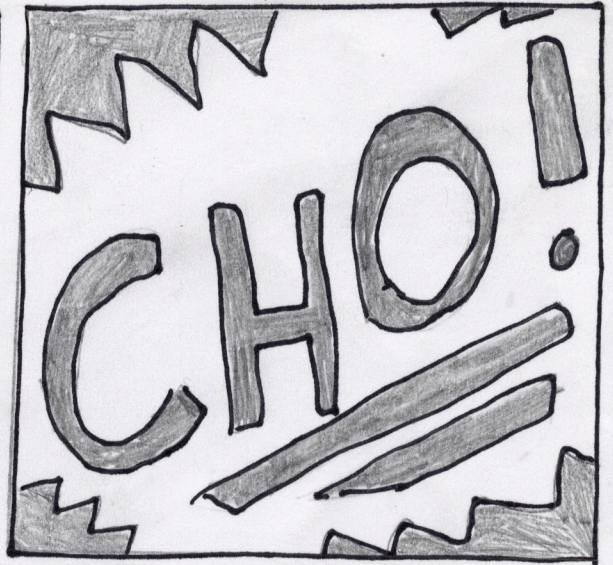

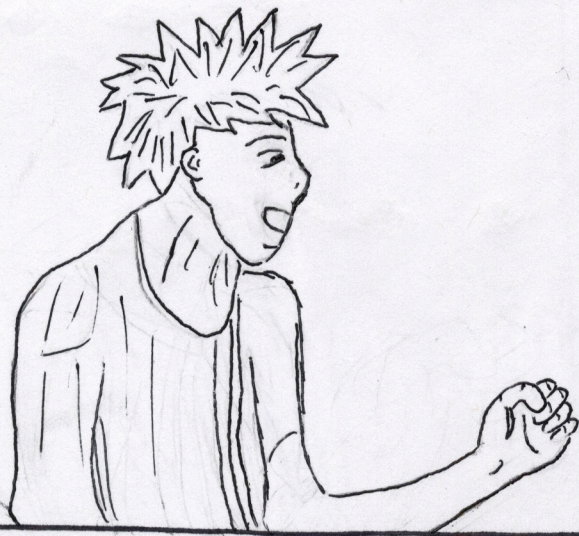

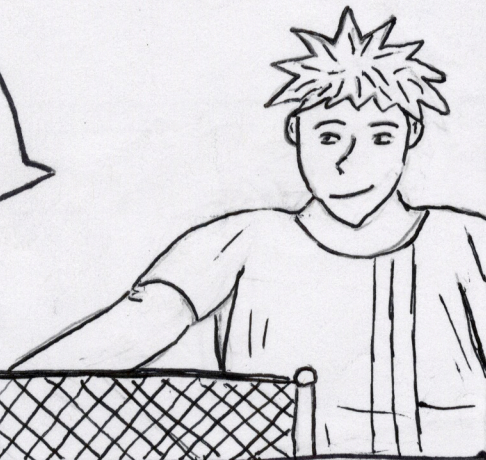

We should play together like this again.

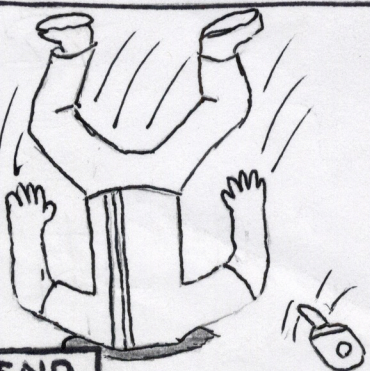

Of course we should!

Should I play again?

Hey! You haven't won yet! That was only the first point!

Especially after we get lunch!
